

Terms of Use for Submitting Facebook Wall Comments

The AHCC® Research Association Facebook page is owned and controlled by the AHCC® Research Association. All submissions will be reviewed and must be approved by the AHCC® Research Association, using its sole discretion, before being posted. Comments that do not directly relate to the topic, are factually inaccurate or misleading or potentially misleading, or are spam, inappropriate, use profanity or other improper language, or are defamatory, hateful or abusive, will not be posted.

Please note that we will only post comments about the compound, “AHCC®,” and not about any specific finished products (branded nutritional supplements) manufactured by any companies. Product-specific questions may and should be directed to the companies that sell them at your sole discretion and risk. While comments including any specific product reference will not be posted, if that comment includes relevant information about the compound, “AHCC®,” it will be edited to exclude the references to any finished product.

The comments contained on this site come from members of the public, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the AHCC® Research Association, and no endorsement of their content should be implied. Comments that contain links to third-party commercial web sites may not be posted; please note that any web sites that may appear in comments are not endorsed or supported by the AHCC® Research Association.
